Access Information

We make every effort to ensure Adelaide Festival events are accessible to our whole audience.

Please check event pages in the guide and on the website for access information and session times. When booking your ticket please inform the operator of any access requirements.

This program is also available in the following alternative formats:

- Online at adelaidefestival.com.au

The website has an Accessibility Userway plugin, you will find the icon in the bottom left corner of your screen.

This enables the website to be customised to suit individual needs and includes font enlargement capabilities, read aloud and options to adjust contrast, saturation, cursor size, fonts, spacing and page views.

- Via audio versions of every event page at <https://www.adelaidefestival.com.au/access/general-access/>

Website Information

The website has a dedicated Access Menu which can be found in the menu located in the top right-hand corner of the main page.

Every event page can be streamed as an audio file on our Soundcloud page, and each event in the Festival program contains detailed access information in the booking guide and on the website.

For up-to-date Adelaide Festival information, sign up for our Festival Insider Newsletter, follow us on social media, and regularly check the Access Pages at adelaidefestival.com.au

We also encourage you to sign up with Access2Arts at access2arts.org.au for regular updates and offers to accessible arts events.

Sensory/Tactile Tour Events

What is a sensory tour?

During sensory/tactile tours of theatre sets and exhibitions, describers lead patrons in meeting performers and artists, and discovering key set elements, props, costumes, and tactile analogues to enhance the description experience.

Unfortunately we are unable to offer this service in our 2023 Festival.

Events with Highly Visual Content

These events are highly visual and are partly subtitled or include dialogue, background music and / or sounds. The rating dictates how much of the show is visual, opposed to dialogue.

Standard ticket prices apply for partly and fully subtitled shows. Please check adelaidefestival.com.au for details.

Open House

From world-class theatre to thrilling dance, incredible music and unmissable opera, the Adelaide Festival is committed to making sure those who are at a financial disadvantage can still access all the Festival has to offer.

Adelaide Festival is committed to being equitable and inclusive. Through various initiatives, we provide opportunities for community members and individuals who would like to experience the Festival but have financial barriers.

Open House is generously supported by The Balnaves Foundation.

Tix For Next To Nix

We want the Adelaide Festival to be for everyone and are seeking out community groups and individuals who would love to experience the Festival but just cannot afford it.

With the generous support of The Balnaves Foundation, we are offering 2500 Tix For Next To Nix across a selection of Festival events for just $5 each. These tickets will be available in advance of the performance for those with a current Pension or Health Care Card.

You can apply on the Open House page of our website. Applications will remain open until ticket allocation is exhausted. After you apply, a representative of our program partner, GOGO Events, will get in touch within 10 business days to confirm your eligibility, discuss any accessibility requirements, and guide you through the next steps to purchase your tickets.

Any questions? Please email them to admin@gogoevents.com.au

Pay What You Can

Are you a low income earner? If you have a current Health Care Card, Pension Card or full-time student card, you can access Pay What You Can tickets to a selection of Adelaide Festival shows. Tickets are available one hour prior to performances at dates and times to be confirmed on the Festival website from Fri 27 Jan.

Adelaide Writers' Week Access

Adelaide Writers' Week information booth is located at the Pioneer Women's Memorial Garden from 4 – 9 March, 2023.

Available resources include the Adelaide Writers' Week Text Only Guide and the Adelaide Writers' Week Audio Guide. Head to adelaidefestival.com.au/access for further details.
